

Industry Guide For

Financial Services

Invest in Engagement

In a time of ongoing technological innovation, we understand the importance of having one secure platform for everything.

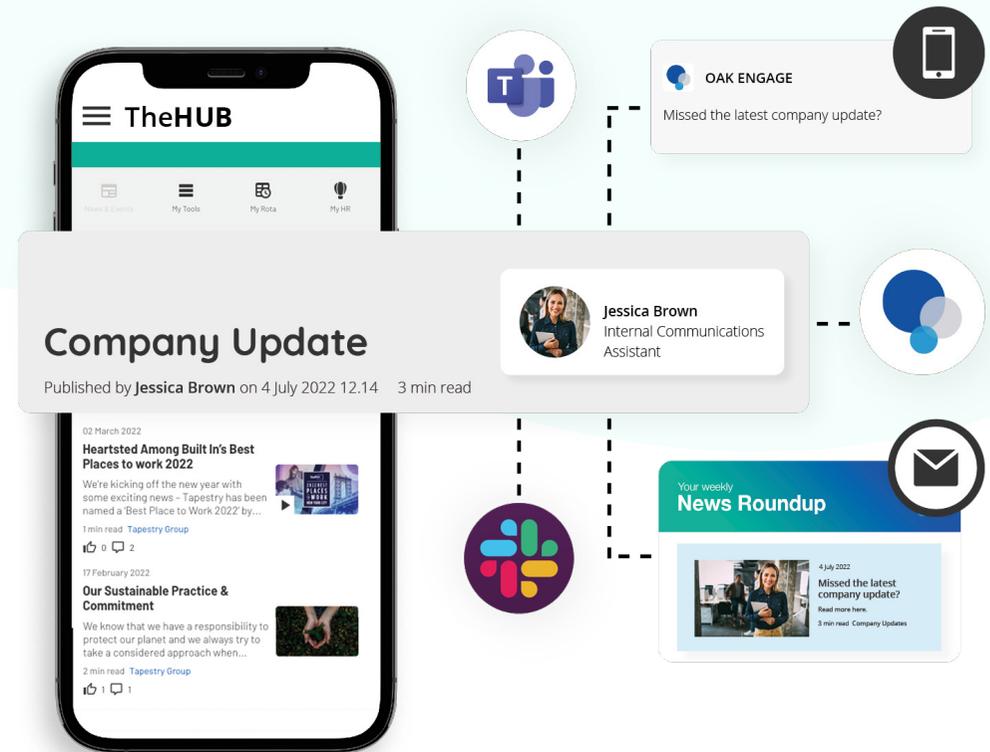

Complete with intelligent content delivery and a mobile app to connect your frontline workers, Oak Engage delivers a personalised and engaging experience to all employees.

Stay Secure Protect your data

Financial services are already one of the most heavily regulated industries. As the industry shifts to new technologies, so do the regulations.

Security and risk management have to be the main focus. That's why Oak protects what matters the most.

All of your data and content is hosted with one of the most secure, stable and widely respected platforms in the world, Microsoft Azure.

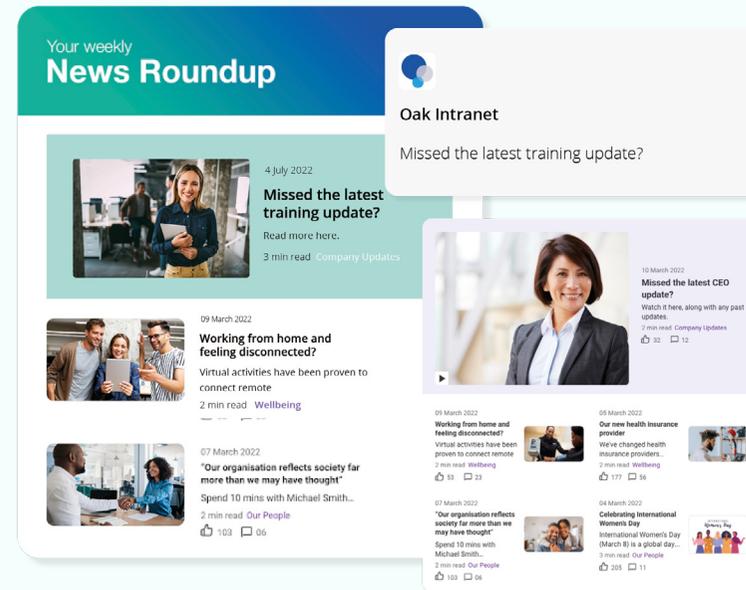

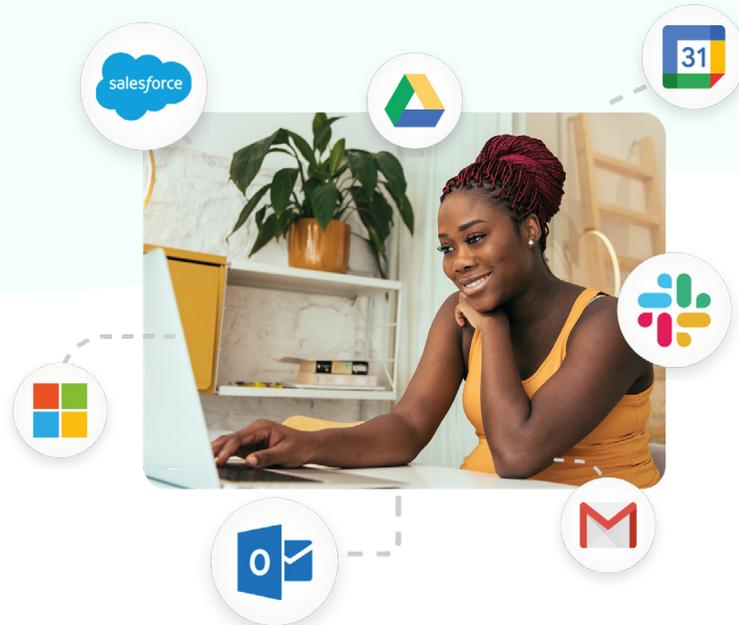

Deliver

Stay one step ahead

The ability to deliver a consistent level of service across all channels is becoming increasingly important.

Your employees always need to stay one step ahead. That's why we provide a solution to communicate crucial news quickly. From curated Newsletters complete with personalised content to Push Notifications and Mandatory Reads, your employees will never miss a beat.

Transform Pave the way

Unifying your customer experience starts with the employee. Pave the way for productivity by providing your workforce with an adaptive platform like Oak Engage.

Easily accessible and full of integrations for your businesses' favourite tools, employees have everything they need in one secure place.

Oak Engage has transformed the way we communicate, delivering a single news feed which aligns with our ‘one bank’ strategy. Consolidating our offering has created a clear channel for communications and a single source of truth. We’re already seeing positive engagement from colleagues.”

Alan Harris, Director of Internal Communications at NatWest
